

Mini-Stay Programmes Swan Training Institute

Swan Training Institute has been specialising in mini-stay programmes for nearly 20 years. These courses are designed to give groups the opportunity of coming to Ireland and studying on a short course during the academic year.

We provide a professional service based on our wide experience.

All programmes include :

- Welcome Pack
- Initial programme arrangement with our Sales Manager
- The services of our Group Activities Organiser
- Regular meetings with our Accommodation Officer Standard
- Feedback data analysis
- General English classes (20 lessons per week)

Host family accommodation - shared-room & full-board (residential options are available on request)

Prices quoted are based on the following :

- Group size 15-25
- 1 group leader free for groups of 15
- 2 group leaders free for groups of 25
- Extra group leader pays accommodation only
- Airport transfers (the whole group arriving and leaving on the same flight)

All students attend our General English morning classes and receive 20 hours tuition at the appropriate level. In the afternoons and on weekends a number of options are available:

Basic

Group leaders organise their own activities and pay their own admissions.

Budget

5 organised activities per week with a STI rep.

Standard

5 organised activities + Saturday excursion with a STI rep.

Bus & Bail Tickets

Foreign student tickets are available upon request from the school. They entitle the bearer to travel on all DART and bus services in Dublin for the duration of the ticket.

