

English for Special Purposes

This course is designed to meet the special language training requirements of a variety of professionals.

We offer courses in:

- Business English
- Medical English
- Legal English
- Tourism

You also have the option of specific tailored courses for other specialist areas.

You can choose from 3 or 5 hours individual tuition per day (Monday-Friday).

You can also have a course of 4 hours General English and 2 hours individual tuition per day (Monday-Friday).

FAQ

Q. How will I get to school on the first day?

A. Swan Training is located right in the centre of the city easily accessible to all bus and train services. Your host family will be able to direct you to the nearest bus or train stop. When you arrive at the school, go straight to reception to be welcomed.

Q. Will I have to do a test or be a certain level to study at Swan Training Institute ?

A. All students must do a written entrance test in addition to an oral test . For some courses other than General English, certain levels are required before acceptance. At busy times students will receive an oral test in place of written test.

Q. What happens if I find my classes too easy/hard?

A. We have a fully-qualified Director of Studies and Assistant Director of Studies who are always available to help you.

Q. Are there any extra charges for text books, materials ?

A. No, use of all text books and supplementary materials is free of charge.

Q. Can I use Internet/my laptop?

A. We have a computer room available to students with free internet access, WI-FI is available so you can use your laptop anywhere in the building.

Q. Is there somewhere where I can eat my lunch/get a drink etc.?

A. We have a lively canteen with a snack machine, television and drinks machines available for you.

Q. What levels do you have in the school ?

We usually have from beginner to Advanced levels. Our levels are based on the Council of Europe Framework and your final certificate will identify your level and your duration of study.